Just a Few Items Boiled Down to a Paragraph for Quick and Easy Digestion

Sol Holcomb lost a fine cow; apparently from poisoning.

R. Monroe Fields left on official business for some weeks at Pikeville.

Joe Yonts, candidate for Coroner, called to see us.

Henry Draper and Eric Rierson motored across the mountains from Bluefield.

Many of the candidates are ransacking the woods for votes.

Henry, W. H. and Spencer Adair, the last of the Adair family, came in and got on the Eagle list. They are all good citizens of the upper coal fields.

Jess Day is the latest to get in to the race for Representative in the Letcher-Perry district.

If apparent hardness that should not exist between neighbors and friends is likely to culminate in the injury of themselves or their friends, whether it is appreciated or not, it is the business of this paper to throw water upon the apparent prospective blaze and cool or destroy it. We have often beheld what a great fire a little spark sometimes makes.

John M. Adams, one of the leading candidates for Tax Commissioner, (Assessor) returned from a 10 days stay on official business at Frankfort.

Madison Dunlap, the liveliest little Jenkins wire, was here for a short while Monday.

At the morning service Sunday Karl Ellis Davis, Jr., and Robert Bruce Salyer Davis came forward and offered themselves for membership in the Methodist church. These boys were consecrated in Holy Baptism by their parents when infants, as all the children of their home have been. They are nice bright boys and bid fair to be useful members.

We confess we don't know what's the matter with our people but we do know that things are not like they once were. It is probably time to stop the machine and let it cool down awhile.

Good or bad or what not all the candidates announced in the Eagle are its candidates. From the paper's point of view or from a serving standpoint all look alike to it. It is doing its best to honestly serve all and this policy will be pursued right on till the matter winds up. It must depend upon the voters to make a righteous choice and if they fail we suffer with them. God reigns and in him dependence must be sought.

GANGWAY!!—Eagle readers will see that James Harper, our Jimmy as everybody knows him, if a candidate for Coroner and the rest had as well clear the track. Gangway!

Wm. Moren and Billie Fuller of Jenkins were Sunday visitors in the burg.

The town was full of citizens Monday all interested one way or another in some trials going on at the Courthouse.

The political meeting held at Fleming Saturday was well attended. Animation over the coming election is getting stronger, even nearing animosity.

Rev. Simpson will fill his appointments Sunday at Democrat in the morning and Campbranch in the afternoon, so there will be no services at Methodist church here on that day.

In the Eagle this week is the announcement of Newt Lewis of Sandlick for the Republican nomination for Circuit Court Clerk. He is one of our best known citizens, is ably qualified, and if nominated and elected will make a good officer.

J. B. McLin, formerly of our county, was a business visitor here.

Mr. Tansey, of Louisville, is here gathering data for the U. S. Historical Society. There is a great deal of important facts connected with the past history of the mountains that have never been put into books.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blair were down from Thornton. Mrs. Blair is suffering much of late with bad teeth.

Judge Whitaker is at Frankfort on business.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. H. Courtney, of Lexington, are the proud owners of a new boy. The young gentleman's name is Robert Estelle and the Phoenix-Third National will be closed for a week.

The many friends of Wesley Breeding of Campbranch are urging him to become a candidate for Justice in his district. Uncle Wes would make a good official.

School News

The commencement exercises of Whitesburg Graded and Letcher County High School opened Friday evening May 6 with a piano recital by the music class, each pupil performing with credit to self and the school. The instrumental program was followed with an operetta, "Midsummer Nights Eve," which was beautifully and artistically rendered in costume.

Monday night grades 1, 2 and 3 entertained with songs, recitations and marches, closing with a play called "The Golden Key," in which were represented many characters of story book land, as Pied Pied Piper, Cinderella, Red Riding Hood, etc.

Tuesday night came 4-5-6-7th grades opening with a chorus, "May is Here". They gave recitations, dialogues and speeches and a hoop drill by 16 little girls dressed in white carrying pink and green hoops. This was a beautiful drill. The 6th and 7th grades entertained in an operetta "Moon Queen" in which the pupils each in beautiful costume represented the sun, sunbeams, moon, moonbeams, stars, breezes, raindrops, clouds, showers and the rainbow. The music was beautiful and high class! The movements were very graceful.

Wednesday the 8th grade appeared in an allegory "The Search for Happiness" in which a girl of wealth was trying to find happiness. After being appealed to in beautiful language by Wealth, Society, Education, Wisdom, Industry, Pleasure and Love all in appropriate costume she chooses Religion as the chief source of true happiness. This was followed by 19 boys in burnt cork specialties, jokes, songs, etc., which were wonderfully rendered, especially the songs.

On Thursday night the High School opened with their yell and chorus. They rendered dialogues, songs, recitations from Shakespeare and Longfellow, and closed with "Uncle Sam's Pageant," showing the development and growth of the nation. It opened with Uncle Sam and his thirteen colonies under Old Glory bearing 13 stars. Uncle Sam, represented in conventional costume, by Oscar Lewis, related to the colonies a dream in which he saw not 13 colonies alone, but many new states entering the union. Then while the colonies appeared to sleep one by one the states came in in the order in which they entered the union, Vermont, Kentucky, etc., each bearing a U. S. flag marching gracefully knelt to Uncle Sam who placed for each one a star in old glory, until 48 stars decked Old Glory, when Miss Sabina Caudill came upon the scene, while all sang "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean". The closing scene was a flag drill by the colonies led by Columbia ending with the "Star Spangled Banner" by 48 States, Columbia and Uncle Sam—Tableau.

Friday at 2 p.m. on the campus 100 girls in flowing costume and wreathed with flowers presented a beautiful May Festival consisting of marching, singing, crowning Queen of the May—Miss Sabina Caudill, winding the varied colored streamers around five May poles, then in a beautiful rush like little wood nymphs they ran towards the school buildings and disappeared.

Friday night was the most important, the graduating exercises under the motto chosen by the graduates, Mr. Astor Hays and Miss Sabina Caudill, not the end but the beginning.

Invocation—Rev. Simpson. Chorus, "Springtime" Oration "Woman Today"—By Miss Caudill.

Address—R. Monroe Fields. Presentation of Diplomas—Prof. Harris.

Benediction—Rev. Scott. These exercises were interspersed with music by the music pupils of the High School.

These were the closing scenes of a wonderful year for Whitesburg.

Rare Art

Beautiful Pictures on Exhibition in the Windows of First National Bank

A number of beautiful paintings by a Whitesburg lady are on exhibition at the front windows of the First National Bank building. Mrs. John M. Bentley, of our town, an artist of rare ability and talent is the painter. There are five scenes in either one of which artistic skill is of the very rarest. In all of them landscape mountain and valley is depicted and the observer has but to glance at them a moment to see in them the kind and gentle hand of a woman. The one attracting most attention is a view from the High Rocks at sunrise and owing to its distinct originality is regarded as the best of the group. This painting is made from a small photograph taken sometime ago by Engineer S. A. Morey, of Sergeant. It is about 24x30 inches and is a view overlooking the Kentucky river valley with heavy clouds settled in the valley in which sleeps the little city of Whitesburg. The outline of the hills miles and miles away covered with pine and oak and chestnut is decidedly captivating. Another painting that fascinates every passerby is a representation of Hiawatha's Wedding Journey, made famous by Longfellow, the great American poet. To say the least it is indeed a rare piece of art.

Little Lady Called

Cladie, 16 year old daughter of Mrs. Polly C. Webb and daughter of the late Burton Craft, of Sergeant, died Monday at the home of her mother. Up until about 10 years of age little Cladie was a happy and healthy little girl at which time she became afflicted with a strange illness since which time she was never well again.

All that medical science could do to cure or relieve her was done but to no avail. We extend deep sympathy to the bereaved mother, brothers, sisters and friends. Little Cladie is well now in heaven.

Announcement

To the Voters of Letcher Co.:

After having been asked by so many of the good citizens of this county and after having given the matter considerable thought I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk of Letcher county, subject to the action of the Republican voters as expressed in the primary election to be held August 6, 1921. I have never held an elective county office but have always been a hardworking citizen of your county since my majority ever voting and contending in an humble way for the best interests of our people, as I believed. I feel that I am qualified to perform the duties of Circuit Court Clerk in a proficient manner.

I desire your votes and assistance in this race and I assure you now that I will ever feel grateful to any and all persons who will aid me in this campaign. If nominated and elected, which I believe I will be, I assure you that I will discharge the duties of the office in a satisfactory manner and in a way that all who have business to transact thru said office will be pleased. Since women are now eligible to vote and hold office I appeal to their high sense of right and duty to think and vote for their best interest in the coming primary election, as well as thereafter. I trust that I may see you all and talk with you before the primary but if I do not want your support and will ever be thankful to you.

Pearl Theatre Now Open

The handsome new Pearl Theatre opened Saturday night with a fine showing. Over 500 persons were pleasantly entertained until a late hour. The pictures shown were highly interesting and pretty Priscilla Dean won her way into the hearts of all.

Monday night the people enjoyed Wm. Farnum, one of the screen's best actors and Tuesday night "Blue Streak McCoy" was given with the great Harry Carey featuring. And so on from day to day Whitesburg will have only the best of pictures. Another pleasing feature is the sweet music furnished by the electric player piano. It is indeed a lovely instrument and is said to have cost about $3,000. The Pearl Theatre is indeed a beautiful and up-to-date show house, with good light, perfect pictures, comfortable seats and is a credit to our little town.

Mr. A. C. Brown, the man in charge, is a very orderly and distinctly moral gentleman and for neither love nor money will permit any picture of a deteriorating character to be thrown on the screen. The patronage of the first few nights is indicative of great success for the new play house. Come out tonight!

EDITORIALS

The August 1921 Primary is nearer this week than ever before. As its coming approaches the more we must take into consideration its importance. The truth is, as every honest man will confess, personalities and politics, this year, above all other years, should be eliminated as it is possible so to do and pursue that course that will redound to greater and nobler things for our great and excellent county. Six score and more years ago our forefathers led the van through a trackless forest, on every hand beset by dangers from the wily red man and ravenous beasts, landed in the unbroken wilds of the Northfork, kindled a few campfires, cleared a little patch on the hillside and started a primitive civilization, the greatest the world has ever known. They labored and toiled with an eye single to the shaping and making of homes for their children and those to come after them. They were giants themselves and in their veins ran the purest and richest blood. Though in a way untutored and unschooled in modern ways every inch of them was a man and every breath they breathed was one of freedom and of right. They laid deep and strong the rudiments of a peculiar civilization from which you and I have descended. Where are we at in this good day, May 1921? How far are we from the old landmarks, or have we lost vision of them? En masse, boys, let's give one long loud scream, in the language of General Philip Sheridan "Turn, turn, boys, we are going back." Our fathers fought and bled and died as patriots that we should live. Shall they, looking down from the parapets above, behold their children betraying their trust? When righteous and God-fearing men are in power peace prevails but when a reverse of this comes we have jostling, babbling of tongues and heaven only knows what else. Look to your tents, oh, Israel! God reigns and the Government at Washington is in the heart of the people. Let it be aroused!

TIGHTEN IMPORT EMBARGO

British Railway and Transport Men Act in Miners' Strike—Situation Still Serious.

London, May 16.—The coal situation is still serious, inasmuch as the railway and transport men have agreed to tighten their embargo on importation, but apprehension that there would be an actual strike of the rail men has been somewhat removed by the decision of the Glasgow and Clyde men not to go out in sympathy with the miners. Premier Lloyd George in the house of commons made a conciliatory speech concerning the coal dispute. Reply to strong appeals made by John R. Clynes, chairman of the parliamentary labor party, to bring the mine owners and the miners together, the premier assured the house of commons that as soon as there was a fair chance of a conference proving successful the government would not hesitate to summon the disputants again.

ALFONSO IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Queen of Spain Also in Machine That Overturns While on Way to Races.

London, May 16.—King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain escaped injury when their automobile overturned when they were going to the Hippodrome to attend the races, says a dispatch to the Central News from Madrid. The accident was due to the bursting of a tire.

Two Men on a Train

Two traveling men were on the train one day as it drew near the station. As they prepared to get off one of them said to the other:

"What bank do you do business with here?"

"Why, the First National of course," the other replied, "We always select The First National in every town where there is such a bank. We have found it a wise thing to do."

"We always know that a first National is governed by the national banking laws; that it is under the strict supervision of the government at Washington and that it is a member of the great Federal Reserve System. These banks always have plenty of capital as well as good, reliable stockholders. We find them a good choice all over the United States."

EXPECT COLLAPSE OF POLISH REVOLT

Berlin Believes Korfanty Has Lost Fight to Secure Upper Silesia for Poland.

TREASON LAID TO PAPER

British People Declared to Be in Favor of Lloyd George's Viewpoint in Carrying Out Versailles Treaty and Division of Silesia.

Berlin, May 16.—Collapse of the Polish revolt in Upper Silesia is expected in authoritative quarters there, according to a special dispatch received here from Breslau.

Important conferences are now in progress, and it is believed that Adalbert Korfanty, leader of the Poles, has lost his fight to secure Upper Silesia for Poland.

The retirement of Prince Hatzfeld, German member of the interallied commission at Oppeln, has prompted Berlin newspapers to express cordial recognition of his services in a difficult environment.

The immediate cause of his resignation from the commission is believed to have been his failure to make good the promise he gave the German populace of Upper Silesia that order would be restored within three days after the insurrection began.

The Vorwärts states its belief that Gen. Lerond, who has been head of the interallied commission in Silesia, should have given the plebiscite area the benefit of some of his conclusions by demanding allied reinforcements equal to the number of men engaged in the Polish insurrection.

High Treason Laid to Paper.

Allegations of high treason are made in proceedings instituted by the ministry of defense against the radical newspaper Rote Faeme (Red Flag) as the result of a publication by that paper of a series of documents bearing on the situation in Silesia.

These documents are alleged to prove that the German military administration had planned an invasion of the Upper Silesian plebiscite area last October, and had plotted the assassination of Adalbert Korfanty.

The ministry declares the documents are fabrications.

London Papers Alarmed.

London, May 16.—Some of the London newspapers affect to see danger in the situation in Upper Silesia, growing out of the invasion there by Poles.

The Daily News expresses the fear that German resistance to the Polish attacks, which it says is inevitable, will be seized upon by the extremists on the other side of the channel, and possibly used as an excuse for picking a new quarrel with Germany.

The Morning Post, which always is pro-French, thinks a formal alliance between Great Britain and France covering all questions would solve the trouble.

The assertion is made that Anglo-French co-operation is undergoing a severe test.

A majority of the British people are declared to be in favor of Premier Lloyd George's viewpoint in the carrying out of the Versailles treaty and the division of Silesia, in accordance with the recent plebiscite returns, and would like M. Briand, the French premier, to adopt a stand similar to that of the British prime minister.

Conference of Civil and Military Chiefs to Take Up Far East Question.

PLAN TO EVACUATE SIBERIA

Count Soejima Says California Is "Local" Affair—Shantung to Be Discussed—Tsingtao May Be Made International Port.

Tokyo, May 16.—In connection with the conference of Japanese civil and military officials holding positions in China, Siberia, Korea, Shantung, Kwangtung and Manchuria, which will meet here in a few days, it is said endeavors will be made to determine America's exact intentions in the Far East. Japan is said to be disposed frankly to outline her own attitude.

The foreign office declines to discuss the visit to America of Admiral Uru, who is a close friend of Secretary Hughes of the State department and Secretary Weeks of the War department. The trend of public discussion here relative to relations between America and Japan is distinctly away from the immigration problem and toward the vaster field of Asia, it being believed that an understanding on Asiatic matters is urgently needed.

California Question "Local."

Emphasizing this view, Count Soejima, a Liberal member of the house of peers, has begun a series of articles on relations between Japan and America, with the avowed purpose of throwing such light on the situation as may lead to an adjustment. He dismisses the California question as a "local difficulty" but insists that potential causes of trouble exist on Asiatic questions.

"If the United States, with her enormous wealth and astounding power," he says, "should oppose Japan, it would be impossible for Japan to maintain the peace, despite all her efforts to do so, because her security would be endangered."

One of the principal subjects to be considered at the conference is said to be the complete military evacuation of Siberia. The present tendency of the government is described as being favorable to the removal of the troops there, and the minister of war, who is expected soon to retire because of illness, is credited with the ambition to settle problems affecting the war department before relinquishing his post.

Shantung Question Important.

Forecasts of the work of the conference also emphasize the importance placed upon the question of Shantung. In an attempt to hasten a solution of the question it is said, Japan may decide to withdraw her troops from the Tsingtao-Fu railroad, but reports that this country intends to release the entire peninsula of Shantung unconditionally are authoritatively described as absurd, as Japan probably will insist that Tsingtao be made an international port.

EXPEL SPY FROM RHINELAND

Allies Order Franz Schulenberg, Seized in United States During War, to Go.

Coblenz, Germany, May 16.—The allies' high commission has ordered expelled from occupied territory Franz Schulenberg, who was arrested in the United States during the war as a German agent and charged with implication in plots.

(A dispatch from San Francisco, December 26, 1917, said that a woman designated only as "H" and said to be prominent in the German secret service, directed the activities of Franz Schulenberg, arrested as a spy and held on a presidential warrant. Schulenberg was said to have been active in plans to destroy bridges and public buildings in Canada and vessels and warehouses at Pacific ports. The woman, federal officials at San Francisco said, had been the agent of Wolf von Izel, former secretary to Franz von Papen, military attaché of the German embassy at Washington and head of the German espionage system in the United States.)

Widow of Oil Man Suffers From Nervous Collapse As Result of Strain in Trial.

Chicago, May 16.—Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, widow of the Oklahoma oil millionaire and politician, is under the care of physicians in her home, 4900 Sheridan road, suffering from nervous collapse. Mrs. Hamon, according to her friends, has been ill since the trial of Clara Smith Hamon for the murder of Mr. Hamon. The collapse, they say, is the result of the nervous strain she was under as one of the principal witnesses at the trial.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Would you like to know Mr. Edison's Favorite Tunes?

YOU know Mr. Edison, the scientist — now meet Mr. Edison, the music lover. Almost every day, Mr. Edison sits close to his Official Laboratory Model, hand cupped to ear, and enjoys his favorite RE-CREATIONS.

Mr. Edison has his own private collection of RE-CREATIONS. He has built it up with the discrimination of a confirmed collector.

We have just received a booklet containing 25 of his favorite tunes. This booklet is entitled "What Edison Likes in Music", and interestingly describes Mr. Edison, the Music Lover.

If you would like a copy of this booklet, together with a 12" x 19" proof of Franklin Booth's etching of Mr. Edison, please fill out this ballot and mail or bring it to us.

What other well-known person's favorite tunes would you like to know? Please write his or her name on the ballot.

Mr. Edison's love of music has made the phonograph his favorite invention. He spent over three million dollars in research work to perfect the New Edison.

Then, to prove its perfect realism, he stood the New Edison side by side with the living artist and matched its performance with the actual performance of the living artist. No one was able to detect any difference between the two. This is the only true way to prove the realism of a phonograph or talking machine — and the New Edison is the only phonograph which sustains this acid-test of direct comparison.

Judge H. T. Day Says

To the People and to the Public Generally of Letcher County, and Especially All Voters and All Candidates:

I desire to say that I announced myself as a candidate for County Judge of Letcher county sometime ago. At that time I intended to run and up to this time I intend to run, but during that time I have been disabled and could not go out from home very much. Now I am able to stir around and desire to say if I keep well I will see most all the voters in Letcher county before the primary, but if I should not get to see some of you I want you to know from this that I am a candidate and will run the race through, regardless of what anyone else may say or do.

I desire to say further that I am running on my record and from what the people know of me in a general way, and am not running in any other man's interest, nor am I led by any other man or set of men.

It has been rumored that I might keep certain other persons from announcing for office, or keep them from running; but, dear voters, ladies and men, I am running my own race, let others do likewise or otherwise, so far as I am concerned. I have no desire to put any man on or take any man off, and if any man desires to run or to not run it is without my suggestion or solicitation.

I am running my own race and all others can do the same.

Hoping to see each and all of you before the primary and asking you now and at the primary to support me, I am,

Your former servant and ever your friend,

H. T. DAY.
